There is plenty of idle capital in our section to capitalize many industrial plants. Why is it not used for that purpose?

"The duty of the hour" is to make every dollar count and to make two blades of grass grow where before there was only one.

We can't see that, after all the Democrats suffered such a fearful defeat. Bryan is not the whole Democratic party by any means.

A pound of cotton manufactured here is worth much more to our people than many pounds sold to manufacturers in other parts of the world.

Put your idle capital into home enterprises. Help build up your section and thus increase the value of the property you are now getting small returns from.

Who knows but what Bryan's overwhelming defeat may prove a blessing in disguise to the Democratic party four years hence? Surely it can learn a wholesome lesson from it.

The battleship North Dakota will have cost, when completed, ten millions of dollars. How much suffering this money would relieve if judiciously distributed among the poor and helpless!

We do not suppose the many men who have been idle for months but who have gotten steady work in the last few days, care what was the cause, just so they get their daily wages.

Comedian Nat. C. Goodwin, having now made his fourth dive in the sea of matrimony, ought to know whether or not marriage is a failure? His latest bride, Miss Goodrich, is a divorcee and Goodwin has divorced three wives.

Judging from the editorial expression of opinion by some of the papers of the State, there seems to be a general opinion that there are going to be lively times in the Legislature which will meet in Raleigh early in January.

More of the Virginia cities which have heretofore escaped prohibition elections will soon be in the throes of such contests. The people have the sympathy and commiseration of their Tar Heel friends, who are glad that they are through with it—if they are.

If the Roosevelt-Taft faction thinks it has whipped Foraker it is going to find itself badly disappointed. The Senator will, in a few days, issue a statement and begin an active campaign for renomination by his party caucus of the Legislature, which will stir things up in Ohio Republican ranks.

38TH ANNIVERSARY

Stonewall Lodge No 1, Knights of Pythias, Oldest in State, to Celebrate.

HON. E. D. SMITH TO SPEAK

Senator-elect From South Carolina and a Brilliant Orator—Programme of Other Exercises For Next Monday.

An address by Hon. E. D. Smith, United States Senator-elect from South Carolina, and other features of interest have been planned by Stonewall Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, the oldest branch of the order in the State, in celebration of its thirty-eighth anniversary, which will take place in Castle Hall, third floor of the Murchison National Bank building, this city, on next Monday evening.

All Pythians of the three other lodges in Wilmington have been especially and personally invited while the committee in charge of the arrangements has mailed letters to the chancellor commanders of all lodges in the Wilmington district inviting them to be represented. Members of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina have also been asked to be present and especial emphasis is laid on the fact that all visiting Pythians of whatever jurisdiction will be cordially received.

The committee in charge is composed of Messrs. J. D. Kelley, (chairman), J. W. Little, W. H. Yopp, B. B. Sugg and W. C. Smith, and they have arranged a most appropriate and pleasing programme as follows:

Music by the Delgado Band.

Opening Ceremonies, Roll Call, Closing Exercises and Selection by the Band.

Address of Welcome—Past Grand Chancellor Wm. F. Robertson.

Selection by Delgado Band.

Address—Hon. E. D. Smith, of South Carolina, introduced by Jos. W. Little, Esq.

Selection by Delgado Band.

History of Organization—Mr. W. H. McClain, vice chancellor of the lodge.

Voluntary Remarks by Members and the Closing Ode.

After the formal part of the exerciess a spread of delightful refreshments will be served and much time will be spent in pleasant social intercourse among the members and visitors.

The committee has been especially fortunate in the selection of a speaker. Mr. Smith has visited Wilmington several times, his work in connection with the Southern Cotton Association prior to his nomination and election as United States Senator from South Carolina having been brilliant and effective. He will come up from his home at Florence on Monday afternoon and probably return on the early train Tuesday morning. All Pythians are asked to bear in mind the date and make their other engagements such that they will not interfere with their attendance.

FOOTBALL SATURDAY

Wilmington Squad Down to Hard Practice Under Coach MacRae.

The Wilmington football team, which is to meet the team from the A. and M. on the gridiron here Saturday afternoon, had a fine practice yesterday and the men are rapidly getting into form for the hard struggle. Captain Smith is leaving no stone unturned in his efforts to put out a winning team and he feels etirely confident that his men will put up a game battle and send the farmer boys back to Raleigh with a defeat to their credit.

Mr. James C. MacRae, Jr., formerly of the University team, and one of the best football players that ever left Chapel Hill, is coaching the local aggregation and his services are proving of incalculable benefit to the players. He is being assisted in the training of the team by several other former college players, and the Wilmington eleven is expected to show up in great shape against the college boys. The game will be played at 3:30 Saturday afternoon at New League Park and the admission will be 50 cents to any part of the grounds.

Dr. G. Kirby Collier to Attend.

Programmes of the eighth annual meeting of the National Association For the Study of Epilepsy and the Care and Treatment of Epileptics at Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 10th and 11th, have been received by members of the medical profession in this city. An extensive programme is announced, among the papers being one on Epileptic Aura by Dr. G. Kirby Collier, of the Craig Colony for Epileptics, Sonyea, N. Y., and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam P. Collier, of Wilmington.

Mad Dog Was Killed.

A little excitement on North Seventh street was caused yesterday afternoon by a supposed mad dog, the canine having symptoms of hydrophobia and going around in such a manner that the neighbors in that vicinity thought it rather unsafe to let the animal proceed unmolested. Officer H. W. Howell was summoned and finding the dog in the yard at No. 214 North Seventh street, ended his life by shooting him.

AUDIT OF COUNTY BOOKS

Representatives of Audit and Bond Company of America Begin Their Work in New Hanover—Cover Two Years.

Messrs. H. L. Beard and A. H. Herrick, expert accountants of the Audit and Bond Company of America, arrived Sunday directly from the company's headquarters in St. Louis, Mo., and yesterday began a professional audit of the books of New Hanover county, provision for which was recently made under authority of the Legislature by the Board of County Commissioners.

The work for the present is being done in the grand jury room at the Court House and the accountants have begun with the books of the sheriff. Later those of County Treasurer H. McL. Green, the records of the Commissioners, the books of the Register of Deeds and Clerk of the Superior Court will be taken up together with those of the County Board of Education. The audit will include the past two years and will be up to the beginning of the new fiscal year for the county on December 1st. The result of the audit with facts and figures will as soon thereafter as possible be published in pamphlet form for distribution to the general public. This company has recently completed expert accounting and reports thereon for a number of counties and municipalities in the South and the work is spoken of very highly. It is estimated that the work will require about two weeks and will cost from $400 to $700 according to the time required.

In addition to the auditing of the books of the county in every department, the report is also expected to suggest certain modern systems of bookkeeping in the various offices as will result in more intelligent accounting in the future. The commissioners have felt for a long time that some public auditing of the books was due the public and it is believed their action in this respect will be heartily commended.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION.

Informal Affair Given by Baraca Class of Grace Church.

An informal reception tendered by the Baraca Class of Grame Methodist church to its friends, from 8 until 11 o'clock last evening, proved in every way a most delightful and profitable affair, featured by excellent short speeches from members of the Baraca organization and a well rendered musical programme. The renditions were highly complimented as were the speeches, by all present. Several hundred were in attendance consisting of the class members and their gentlemen and lady friends.

The invocation of Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor of the church, opened the exercises of the evening. An impromptu address by Rev. T. A. Smoot on the work of the Baraca class and its influence on young men, was delivered interestingly and with an ease characteristic of the speaker. He made spirited reference to the association work of the Grace Baraca, mentioning in particular its forward movement in the interest of missions. Concluding with a few appropriate remarks about a young man's place in the church, the demand of the age for the Baraca class has given them a chance to work.

Mr. Louis Williams, on the origin of the Baraca Class, spoke splendidly, giving very rich illusions and reminiscences of Mr. Hudson, founder of the Baraca Class, with whom he is personally acquainted.

Mr. M. H. Brimmer paid a fitting tribute to the Baraca Class and its excellent influence, and extended special invitations to the young men of the city, especially new comers, to join and he assured them of companionship as a worker of the class. His address was well outlined and pleasingly delivered.

The programme was interspersed with musical selections rendered by Misses Lucile Green, Julia Post, Maude Bulluck and Messrs. J. S. Williams and Mr. Ashley Bowden. A reading by Mrs. Curtis Arnall-North was greatly enjoyed. Dainty and delightful refreshments were served, adding a pleasant feature to the conclusion of the evening's programme.

"The Holy City" to be Sung.

"The Holy City," a sacred cantata, will be given by the choir of St. James' church Friday evening of this week at 8:15 P. M. This is said to be the most pretentious work exer attempted in this city. The cantata consists of solos, duets, trios for female voices and choruses. The music is the most melodious, in the opinion of many, of any sacred work yet published. Mr. Johnson and his choir having been practicing for the past six weeks, they promise a musical treat to all who attend. A collection will be taken to be devoted to a musical library for the choir.

Gardner-Lacy Case Postponed.

The case of the New Jersey and North Carolina Land and Lumber Company and others, appellants, against the Gardner-Lacy Lumber Co., and others, appellees, from the Circuit Court at Wilmington which was on the calendar of the Circuit Court of Appeals in Richmond for hearing yesterday, has been postponed at the request of counsel represented, Messrs. Rountree & Carr, Bellamy & Bellamy and Meares & Ruark, of Wilmington.

THE FEDERAL COURTS

Judge Waddill, of Virginia District May be Designated to Hold Carolina Terms.

NEWS OF DAY IN RALEIGH

Governor in Mission Work—Several Charters Granted—O. R. C. Have Elaborate Celebration—Suit Against City.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 9.—Federal Court authorities here are conferring now with United States Circuit Judge J. C. Pritchard relative to provision for holding the Raleigh and the Wilmington courts of the Eastern district of North Carolina that are due to convene respectively November 24th and December 8th, it being clearly evident that District Judge Thomas R. Purnell will not be in physical condition to preside at either term.

He had another turn for the worse yesterday, besides falling and hurting himself after insisting on getting out of bed. Judge Waddill, of the Eastern District of Virginia, has already been assigned to hold Judge Purnell's court at Newbern December 14th, and it is understood that an effort is being made to adjust his other courts so as to enable him to sit for the Raleigh and Wilmington courts also, but this is not settled yet. And, indeed, it seems doubtful if such an adjustment can be made.

A bit of Presbyterian mission work that is preliminary to his formal enlistment with the Southern Presbyterian Board of Missions when he shall have retired from the governorship, was done by Governor Glenn Sunday and today when he went with Rev. W. McC. White, pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, out to Apex, this county for services preliminary to the formation of a Presbyterian congregation there. The indications are that this congregation will be formed very soon now.

The Standard Table Co., Greensboro, is chartered by the State with E. P. Wharton, C. D. Kellenberger and R. W. Murray as incorporators to take over the plant of The Greensboro Table Co., recently sold by court receiver to E. P. Wharton. The capital of the new company is $100,000, Mr. Wharton having the majority of stock. The plant is to resume operations at once.

The Boroughton Buggy Co., Elizabeth City, also receives a charter, capital $100,000 authorized and $5,000 subscribed by W. T. Old, S. W. Gregory, W. J. Broughton and others; also the Onslow Telephone Co., Jacksonville, $20,000 capital authorized and $1,000 subscribed by E. L. Cox and others for a local telephone exchange.

The Hamlet Water Works Co., amends its charter so as to empower the company to extend its water system and supply sources as much as 25 miles in the Hamlet vicinity. A very considerable enlargement and improvement of the plant is contemplated.

The annual meeting and banquet of the Raleigh Division No. 264 Order of Railway Conductors in which the Southern, Seaboard Air Line and Norfolk & Southern roads are represented in a membership of 80 men, were held today, T. F. Wilson, of the Southern, was elected chief conductor with C. H. Gavin, of the Seaboard Air Line, as assistant; M. G. Jones, of the Seaboard, legislative committeeman, and J. D. Hogan, of the Seaboard Air Line, representative to the session of the Grand Division to meet in Brooklyn next May. Among the guests who responded to toasts were J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State; B. R. Lacy, State Treasurer; Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the Supreme Court, and J. M. Shea, superintendent of the Seaboard second division.

A suit by Richard Revis against the City of Raleigh has terminated in Wake Superior Court in a verdict for $1,500 damages. The plaintiff had sued for $5,000 on account of injuries sustained in falling into an old well on Dave street that the city authorities had not had filled or securely covered.

A. & M. College students and the people of Raleigh generally were delighted with the great victory of the College football team over Davidson in Charlotte, and a big torch light procession with drum and horns and a general uproar was a special means of giving vent to their gratification.

GET RESTRAINING ORDER

Wilmington Creditors of Mallard & Bryan, of Rose Hill, Sue to Have Property Included in Assets of Receivership.

Service of complaint, affidavit and restraining order in a suit brought by the N. Jacobi Hardware Co., Geo. R. French & Son and McNair & Pearsall, of this city, against A. W. Mallard and A. T. Bryan, doing a mercantile and saw mill business near Rose Hill, N. C., and D. H. Bryan, of Wilmington, was effected yesterday through the office of the sheriff in this county on the last named defendant.

The complaint alleges that the affairs of the firm are now being wound up under a receivership by Maury Ward; that on Nov. 25th, 1907, the firm executed a chattel mortgage to the defendant D. H. Bryan, which mortgage has not been recorded, in the sum of $2,000, evidenced by a note of like amount and covering one saw mill, engine, boiler, fan edger and other property now on the land of J. M Robinson in Duplin county; that the property was partnership property and that plaintiffs are informed and believe that the said mortgage was without consideration and nothing of value passed from the mortgagee to the mortagor to support the same and that it was for the purpose of defeating the ends of the receivership; that the firm is indebted to the plaintiffs in the following amounts: N. Jacobi Hardware Co., $113.91; Geo. R. French & Son, $162.65 and McNair & Pearsall, $267.58; that D. H. Bryan has advertised the mortgaged property for sale under the power of sale contained therein and threatens to proceed to make said sale thereunder. Plaintiffs pray that an order be made restraining D. H. Bryan from making the sale; that they recover of the defendant firm the respective amounts due them and that the mortgage be declared void and that the receiver be directed to take charge of the property and administer the same under his trust.

Messrs. Rountree & Carr, of this city, appear for the plaintiffs, and Judge C. C. Lyon in chambers at Warsaw on Saturday granted the restraining order, requiring the defendants to appear before him in chambers at Kenansville on Nov. 23rd, to show cause, if any, why the restraining order should not be made permanent and the petition of the plaintiffs be granted. The total claims of the Wilmington creditors who bring the suit is $544.14.

OFFICER WAS INJURED.

Enraged Negro Gnawed Into Cheek of Officer M. A. Jones.

In the police court yesterday the session was largely consumed with the trial of Monroe Toomer, colored, in which case Officer M. A. Jones, the prosecuting witness, related a rather exciting experience with the defendant. On Saturday night in Racket Store alley Toomer proved very disorderly and Officer Jones placed him under arrest The negro violently resisted and bodily grabbing the officer, they clinched. The negro fought him savagely and inflicted a painful wound in his left cheek by biting him. The negro then got away from the officer and attempted to escape, but after going a few feet stumbled and Officer Jones caught him before he recovered himself. The policeman was compelled to use his club to make the negro submit to arrest. Officer Jones also complained of sustaining a fractured rib in the scuffle. On the charge of resisting an officer he was placed under $100 bond, which he was unable to give, and for disorderly conduct $5 and the costs.

Sis Lucas, colored, for being drunk and disorderly, was given 30 days on the county farm, and James H. Williams, colored, for vagrancy, was sentenced to 30 days on the county roads.

COLLECTOR KEITH INVITED

Will Read Paper at Forthcoming Forest Festival at Biltmore, N. C.

Collector of Customs B F. Keith, of this city, who has been especially active in his advocacy of the stock law as the surest preventative of the ultimate complete destruction of our forests, is in receipt of a very cordial invitation from Director C. A. Schenck, of the Biltmore Forest School, to attend a Forest Festival to be held there November 26th to 28th, celebrating the 20th anniversary of the inauguration of forestry on the Biltmore estate and the 10th anniversary of the Biltmore Forest School. Attractive programmes have been mailed announcing the meeting and arrangements are being made to royally entertain the visitors. Mr. Keith hopes to attend and, if so, will present a paper on "The Future Destiny of the South Depends Upon the Protection of its Forests," an especial application of the subject being made to North Carolina.

County Board of Education.

The County Board of Education, Chairman George Rountree presiding and all members in attendance, was in regular monthly session last night but only routine business was transacted. The report of Superintendent Catlett as to the rural schools was very gratifying, showing an increased average daily attendance over last year, especially in the white schools in the county.

NEGRO FATALLY SHOT

Quarrel of Colored Youths Over Crap Game Resulted in Shooting Yesterday

FEW CENTS IN DISPUTE

John Phifer the Victim While Ben Barge, His Assailant, Makes Good His Escape—Wounded Man in Hospital.

Resulting from a disagreement over a crap game, John Phifer, colored, was shot and perhaps mortally wounded by Ben Barge, colored, yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock, near Ruth Hall, in the vicinity of Seventh and Nun streets, while the assailant has fled to parts unknown and the victim is in a dangerous condition at the James Walker Memorial Hospital.

The injured man is some 25 years old, while his assailant is about 19. Phifer and Barge engaged in a crap game in a secluded place near Ruth Hall and after playing for some time, it seems that Phifer was lucky enough or otherwise by unfair methods to get all of Barge's money. They were seen to come on the sidewalk and have a heated conversation, during which Barge said that he was going to have his money, and immediately left the place. A short while afterwards he reappeared with a pistol and pointing it directly at Phifer, he stated that he was going to shoot after counting three, unless he came forward with the coin. Phifer failed to comply with the demand and when the time was up, Barge deliberately fired, the bullet striking Phifer just below the heart on the left side and ranging toward the right side.

Phifer, who was seated on a plank near the curbing of the street, fell from his position to the sidewalk and Barge in his hurry to get away, scaled the large fence at the Marine hospital and disappeared down through the grounds, heading directly toward the woods when last seen.

A phone message of the affair came into the City Hall and mounted Officer C. G. Jones went hurriedly to the scene, but in the meantime Officer Appleberry had reached there and the ambulance was called and the wounded man carried to the hospital. Blood flowed profusely from the wound.

Superintendent J. R. Hardee, of the county farm, and Constable Savage were summoned with blood hounds, and in company with Chief of Police Williams went in search of the fugitive. They took up the trail from the scene of the affair and followed the trail of the fleeing negro for some distance. They made a dilligent effort to apprehend the criminal, but finally the dogs left the trail after they had followed it almost to the Sound.

GENERAL FRANCIS IREDELL

Distinguished British Army Officer, Retired, to Visit Wilmington.

General Francis Iredell, of the British Army, retired, accompanied by Mrs. Iredell and daughter, Miss Violet Iredell, who have been on a visit to relatives in the United States for the past several weeks, will arrive in the city this afternoon from Columbia, S. C., and will spend several days in Wilmington, guests at the home of Captain Thos. D. Meares and of other relatives here. General Iredell is a grandson of a brother of the late Associate Justice Iredell, of the United States Supreme Court, who is buried at Edenton, N. C., and the travels of the party in this country have taken them there and to Raleigh and Norfolk where relatives are now residing. General Iredell joined the British Army when a very young man and was first with the British Army in India, being in the siege at Lucknow in 1857. His promotion in the service was rapid until a few years ago when he was retired as a Lieutenant General. He now has a son on a ranch in California and it was for the purpose of visiting him and other relatives in this country that he came over from London. The distinguished visitor and members of his family accompanying him will find a cordial welcome awaiting them in Wilmington.

THE WILMINGTON REVOLUTION.

Tenth Anniversary to be Celebrated This Evening in Masonic Temple.

The tenth anniversary of the Wilmigton revolution, following the race troubles here in 1898, will be celebrated this evening on the fourth floor of the Masonic Temple by the Wilmington Light Infantry as it was constituted at that time. The W. L. I. took no inconsiderable part in that conflict and it is for the purpose of keeping alive in the organization as then constituted the spirit of comradeship that existed among members of the company at that time that these annual reunions are held. Col. Walker Taylor, who was in command of all the forces in Wilmington at the time, is honorary president of the Association, which has been formed; Col. T. C. James is president; Mr. W. N. Harriss, vice president, and Mr. R. N. Sweet, secretary and treasurer. The meeting this evening will be informal in its nature and a barbecue and other refreshments will be provided after the business meeting.

DEMOCRACY STILL VIGOROUS.

Some people, with whom the wish is father to the thought try to make it appear that Democracy is dead; that this is proven by the results of the recent election. Bryan's defeat by no means proves anything of the sort, while other results of the election show just the reverse. Any one who will carefully study the results of Tuesday's election will be bound to come to the conclusion that Democracy is a pretty live corpse and that for a dead body it gave its political enemy some mighty hard knocks on that day. We will admit that the result of the national election was or should be the death of some issues in the party—the elimination of which will only make the party stronger and more vigorous, just as the pruning of dead limbs from a tree is beneficial to parts that are still alive and growing. Consider the following results of the late election and say whether it looks like the Democratic party is dead. The Republican party's majority in both Houses will be reduced in the next Congress, losing its advantage of a two-thirds' majority in the Senate. The Democrats have elected their candidates for Governor in such Republican States as Rhode Island, Nebraska, Indiana, Minnesota and Ohio and perhaps one more Western State, and in nearly every State north of the Potomac the Roosevelt majority of four years ago has been greatly reduced by the Bryan vote. Democrats have a majority in Legislatures of States which for years have been dominated by Republican majorities. These are some of the results of the election which show that Democracy is far from dead. There are many other signs of its life and vigor which might be pointed out, but these are enough to show that the Republicans won no overwhelming victory on last Tuesday. They elected their candidate for President and that is about all they did do.

OUR NEW COAL ROAD.

From the Charlotte Chronicle we learn that the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railroad Company has made a contract to deliver in Charlotte on January 1st next five cars loaded with coal. This means that the C. C. & O. railroad will have its line completed by that date to Bostic, the point on the Carolina Central Railroad above Charlotte where the former will cross the latter road. The point of interest to Wilmington people in this news item is that the day the Clinchfield road opens a through line into Charlotte it will also be opened over the same route to our port. As soon as coal can be delivered at Charlotte it can be as easily delivered at Wilmington. The opening of this new route from the coal fields to Charlotte also means its opening to the seaport of Wilmington. The C. C. & O. railroad has been completed to Marion on the Western North Carolina Railroad and work is being pushed on the section between that point and Bostic, a distance of thirty miles. It is the completion of this section by January 1st that will enable the railroad to comply with its contract above mentioned, and the Charlotte Chronicle says the C. C. & O. railroad people have never yet failed to put a train into a town on the date they had fixed upon. These announcements indicate that it will not be long before Wilmington will be an actual distributing point for foreign shipment of coal and an important coaling station for steamships seeking foreign ports from the south of us and for coastwise steamers also.

ROOSEVELT'S TABLE TALK.

"One can imagine a book which would be well worth half a million dollars to any publisher who could get hold of the necessary material for it. This would be a volume containing Mr. Roosevelt's table talk—or some of it—since he first came to the Presidency. For frank indiscretion, absolute bluntness, and the most irreverent pungency of phrasing, this table talk of Mr. Roosevelt's is extraordinarily interesting. No matter who happens to be his guest, the President always speaks without the slightest reserve, giving his actual opinions of Senators, Representatives, public men in general, ambassadors and even foreign potentates, in a way that makes one's head swim with astonishment.—Harry Thurston Pack, in The Forum.

No doubt it would be a very entertaining book, but as none of the "table talk" would be in "direct quotation marks," and Private Secretary Loeb would stand ready to deny any and all parts that Roosevelt chose to have denied, and he would unhesitatingly assign to the ananias club all who reported such remarks as he did not care to have published, of what real value would the book be?

"When Carl Duncan induced Mr. Hitchcock to send his loot to the mountain caves of North Carolina, he seems to have been inspired by the wisdom of the children of the world."—Scottish Chief.

Surely the Scottish Chief does not mean to charge that the mountaineers of the Eighth and Tenth districts sold their votes for so much cash per vote to the managers of the Republican Congressional campaign in those two districts. We have no such low opinion of any North Carolinians, whether they dwell in the "mountain caves" or on the plains of the seashore region.

Practical jokes are always out of place and when attempted with the aid of a pistol are dangerous, as was proven at Laurens, S. C., the other night, when one of two young men accompanying a lady home from a party was killed by the firing of a pistol by the other in pursuance of an agreement between the two to frighten the lady. The other young man has been taught a lesson which will cure him of fooling with fire arms in such reckless manner.

Mr. Brooks, the late Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fifth District, issues a card through the press thanking those Democrats who stood by him in the election. The trouble is there were not enough such Democrats, and one hasn't to go far to find out why this is so. Certain Democrats who aspired to the nomination and not the Republicans, are responsible for the defeat of the Democratic nominee in that district.

A change has come o'er the spirit of his dream. Newbern's prophet of evil, the negro, self-styled Prince George, known to many people of Wilmington, who has so often made phophecies of the destruction of the two cities, now tells the residents of the former city that before next year expires they will see a patrol wagon and electric cars going up and down their streets.

"Progres" is the watchword of the day. Wilmingtonians should not be found lagging in the procession. What our section needs is more industrial plants to consume the products of our section, so that the greater profits of the manufactured, instead of the lesser on the sale of the raw material, may be realized by our own people.

The country now awaits with bated breath the publication of the true campaign subscription list of the Republican National committee. Of course it knows that a true and correct statement of names of subscribers and amounts donated will be made in such publication—if it is ever given out.

We have no doubt that there is truth in the rumor that State Chairman Adams is booked for a good Federal office under the Taft administration. The election results in this State under his management have pleased the Republican National chairman and the President-elect.

Manufacturers, to whichever party they may belong, are in the forefront of politics in the New England States. The Governor-elect of Rhode Island, is a cotton manufacturer and a textile machinery man will be Massachusett's next Chief Executive.

We hope the missionaries in "Darkest Africa" will give the cannibals timely notice of Roosevelt's coming for them to make their escape.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Also, we would be glad to have some explanation of the defection in North Carolina. We observe that in that State and in Georgia, where prohibition has been triumphant, the Democratic slump in the South has been most pronounced. We are interested to know whether this is merely a coincidence or a case of cause and effect.—News Leader.

—The Legislature which meets in January will be confronted with at least one very embarrassing proposition. It will be asked to pass a bill to restore to the people the right of local self government; the right of local option. In view of the developments of Tuesday members-elect of the General Assembly may as well begin thinking of this matter now.—Charlotte Observer.

—Powerful combinations and groupings of nations make for general peace, hence there is nothing in the changes that are taking place in the mutual relations of the European Powers that should cause uneasiness, but, on the contrary, the peaceable way in which the Balkan complications are working out leads naturally to the belief that the new combinations have prevented war.—New Orleans Picayune.

—As was to be expected, lawyers for the night riders in Tennessee are resorting to every possible technicality in the attempt to save their clients from justice. But these barristers will not succeed in placing Governor Patterson before the country in the light of a law-breaker, when every intelligent and orderly citizen knows very well that the Governor is doing the one necessary and proper thing to protect and enforce the law. You cannot deal with the highwayman or the pirate as you would with ordinary disturbers of peace and liberty; you must meet his force with force, and you must strike harder than he does. Anarchy cannot be knocked down with a feather.—Norfolk Landmark.

—The Democratic loss in the State is also due to different causes in different localities, but the principal trouble, in The Landmark's opinion, is dissatisfaction growing out of the prohibition election and the strife engendered in the Democratic primaries. The former probably has cost the Democrats members of Congress in the Eighth and Tenth districts. The result in the Fifth is probably more largely due to the fierce fight on Brooks, the Democratic candidate, in the primaries. The State ticket will have majority enough and the Legislature is safely Democratic, insuring the re-election of Senator Overman. For this we owe much thanks, and two years hence the Democrats will probably regain what they have lost this year.—Statesville Landmark.

—Thousands will gladly hear the news that Senator Aldrich will not be a candidate for re-election four years hence. Perhaps his age begins to tell upon him; perhaps he reads the signs of the times aright. If so, he must know that the day has passed when a Senator in such conspicuous relations with some of the greatest business interests can remain peacefully and comfortably in Washington. It is the presence of Senator Aldrich and Speaker Cannon as party leaders which makes it so hard for Mr. Roosevelt to convince everybody that his is a reformed Republican party. It is but half reformed; it is a house divided against itself, with a process of elimination going on which a few years hence may have really separated the party from its Siamese twin, the protected interests. It is a comforting reflection for every one who wishes to see business and politics kept at a safe distance from one another that this process of regeneration will go on.—New York Evening Post.

—The execution of Samuel J. McCue, at Charlottesville, Va., on February 10, 1905, for the murder of his wife, is recalled by a decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals in Richmond, in the matter of a life insurance policy carried by McCue. He had a policy of $15,000 in the Northwestern, the payment of which that company contested. The United States District Court at Lynchburg held that death on the gallows was not one of the risks assumed by the defendant corporation, and that even if such had been the case and the risk had been especially contracted the circumstances were contrary to public policy. Writ of error was asked for and granted, and the cause was taken to the Circuit Court of Appeals on appeal. That court has reversed the court below, remanded the case, and held the defendant insurance company liable. Other insurance companies in which McCue carried policies paid without protest, and now the Northwestern has to come down with the money, in addition to court costs and lawyers' fees, and the public will have no sympathy for it.—Charlotte Chronicle.

THE HUMAN ENGINE.

To Operate This Masterpiece Air Is the First Necessity.

Of all the engines cunningly devised by man not one can equal that masterpiece of construction, the engine of the human frame. To run that engine air is the first necessity. Construct it how you will, the greater part of the energy which feeds a power plant is lost before it reaches the applying machine. The body only has the power of using energy really economically and efficiently. Its food is its fuel. To be available all the constituents of that food must be burned, producing heat and power. For that burning the oxygen of the air is essential. Equally true is it that nitrogen must be present to prevent the rapid combustion which would take place in oxygen alone. But, whether the combustion be fast or slow, the action is the same. The body burns the carbon and hydrogen of its food and gives out the oxides of these substances, carbon dioxide (carbon acid gas) and hydrogen oxide (water). The water that is formed within the body by the burning of hydrogen is of comparatively slight importance in a consideration of the vital questions of the effect of city air upon the individual, but the other factor, the carbon dioxide formed in the body, is of direct importance.—Hollis Godfrey in Atlantic.

FOOD FOR CANNIBALS.

One of the Many Tragedies Enacted in Polynesia.

It is not so very long ago that cannibalism was rife throughout Polynesia, so that to be killed, cooked and eaten was the almost invariable fate of sailors who chanced to be so unfortunate as to be cast away on any of the outlying little visited islands.

Perhaps the most awful tragedy of the kind on record was that which happened in connection with the loss of the St. Paul, Captain Pennard, while on a voyage from Hongkong to Sydney. This fine steamship carried, besides a full crew, 327 passengers, mostly emigrants.

On Sept. 30, 1858, she was wrecked on the island of Rossel, but all got safely on shore. A little later the captain and eight of the crew left the island in search of assistance and were picked up by the Prince of Denmark schooner. Eventually the French steamer Styx was dispatched to the island and brought away one emigrant. The remaining 326 had been massacred, and devoured by the natives.—Pearson's Weekly.

For Strength

The Supreme Court Says

in a recent decision about female labor: "The two sexes differ, in structure of body, in the functions to be performed by each, in the amount of physical strength, in the capacity for long-continued labor, etc."

It follows that female weakness, due to these differences in body structure and functions, requires some certain medicine to hit the right spot and that Cardui, the medicine for women, is more likely to be the right thing for women to take, when sick, than a medicine recommended for the two sexes alike.

Try Cardui, for female pain, irregularity, weakness, or misery. It is a specific female remedy, especially recommended for the diseases peculiar to the female sex, a medicine that, in the past 50 years, has benefited over a million—WOMEN.

BLEWETT FALLS LIVELY.

Different Factions of Company Striving For Possession—Personal Combats.

(Wadesboro Ansonian.)

There have been lively scenes at Blewett Falls since last Thursday night and matters there are far from quiet. Warrants have been issued for a number of men there, charging them with forcible trespass and destruction of property. The original owners of the developments there, the Hugh MacRae Co., of Wilmington, had agreed with the representatives of the Federal Construction Co., the parties doing the work, and the General Electric Co., the parties furnishing the machinery, to form a voting trust which would vote the stock of the three parties interested in the interest of the enterprise.

Parties who have interests connected with the interest of Hugh MacRae Co., feeling that the reorganization referred to above was not giving them a square deal began to look about for some method of asserting their rights and prevent the confiscatoin of their property. Some of the parties among them being H. M. Chase, of Wilmington, hold lands independent of all contracts made with the Rockingham Power Co., and lands from which they have been receiving rents. These lands are located most favorably for the company and to these the men mentioned above have clear titles, so they allege. But to further protect their claims, Wednesday night Mr. Jones, who held a lease from Chase, erected a house on his land. While doing this he held in his possession the original deed to Chase and other papers which make his title clear to the land.

On Wednesday night after carpenters had been at work for several hours on the house, the agents and servants of the Rockingham Power Co., and W. R. Bonsal & Co., came on the scene, about 60 strong, armed with guns, pistols, axes and other implements and forced the carpenters by threats to quit work on the house. Thursday afternoon the Falls people or those representing interests other than of Hugh MacRae Co., tore down the house partly erected by Jones and with teams hauled it away, taking his stove and provisions into their camp. An injunction was secured Friday night and served Saturday morning by Sheriff Martin, but a few hours later at about 5 o'clock and while the Sheriff was on the place, the Falls people ordered a house, then standing on the Wall lands now belonging to Chase, to be torn down and partially burned. A modified injunction was then secured by Chase allowing him to rebuild the house. It was partly rebuilt Saturday and Monday Chase and his agents occupied the same until 3:30 when 24 of the Falls people with bulldogs, forcibly carried them from the building, several of them being slightly injured during the time. Warrants were issued for the attacking parties and they were ordered to appear in Justice Rogers' court this morning. This they failed to do but trial will come up again tomorrow morning. Messrs. Coxe & Brock, J. A. Lockhart and McLendon & Thomas represented the prosecuting witnesses while Solicitor Robinson and Mr. T. L. Caudle appear for the defendants.

Sympathy here seems to favor the Hugh MacRae Co., who first began this development. It is fair to them to state here that they have never thus far received any profits from the business, but the other interests, the Federal Construction Co., and the General Electric Co., have both received profits, the first receiving commissions on the money expended and the latter profits on machinery furnished. It is alleged, too, that there has been much extravagance in the work, all of which appears to be against the interest of the Hugh MacRae Co.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong; He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complains. Friends will regret to learn of the death of Mr. James H. Hicks, a well known and highly esteemed Wilmington resident, which occurred at his home, No. 710 South Seventh street, Sunday morning at 3 o'clock. For the past several years of his life Mr. Hicks had been totally blind and his health had been very poor. While the end was not unexpected, it came as a blow to the family and friends.

Mr. Hicks was 67 years of age and was a brave Confederate soldier, having enlisted in Company F, Third N. C. Infantry, June 10th 1861, and having been present at all the battles in which that gallant band participated up to the battle of Spottsylvania in 1864 when he was captured and taken a prisoner to Elmira, N. Y., having been kept there until June 1865. He was a good soldier, faithful to every duty and when the war closed, he took up and carried out his duties of citizenship as faithfully as he had served his country on the battlefield. He was always interested in the Confederacy and was a most enthusiastic member of Cape Fear Camp No. 254, U. C. V., which is called to assemble at the late residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon in uniform for the purpose of attending in a body the funeral services, which will be conducted at 3 o'clock by Rev. J. P. King, of the Second Advent Church.

LOCAL OPTION IN VIRGINIA.

Tidewater Cities to Vote on Liquor Question—Local Interest.

From the fact that many Wilmington dealers have already made their arrangements to transfer their business to Norfolk and Portsmouth when prohibition goes into effect in this State on January 1st, there is local interest in dispatches which state that plans are now being made for a gigantic movement to exterminate saloons from the three tidewater cities of Virginia—Norfolk, Portsmouth and Suffolk—by local option elections. The anti-saloon leagues of the three cities named have agreed to launch simultaneously petitions for an election on the same day. The joint committees from Norfolk and Portsmouth have arranged to meet Nov. 29th at which time concerted action will be taken. The Norfolk league, it is said, does not wish to hasten the matter, but Portsmouth, just across the river, is impatient and may force the issue. The petitions for the Suffolk election have already been signed. Lynchburg votes on the question Dec. 6th and it is said there is already a movement for an election in Roanoke, leaving Richmond and Alexandria the only cities without agitation in the State.

Her Visit Postponed.

The meeting of the Wilmington alumnae of the State Normal and Industrial College with Miss Etta Spier, the field secretary of the State Association, at the High School tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 P. M., has been postponed as Miss Spier finds it impossible to be here at that time.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Theatre

Lovers of that delightful style of comedy which lends itself to fascinating feminine interpretation, in which Florence Davis has come to be regarded as one of the most excellent portrayers, will look forward with pleasant anticipation to the coming of this popular star and her company of selected players, including Elliott Dexter, to the Academy Thursday night in the new comedy success, "Under the Greenwood Tree."

True to the arboreal suggestion of its name, this play is laid principally in forest fastnesses, while its first act, by way of contrast, is in a richly appointed London drawing room. Seats will go on sale at Plummer's tomorrow morning.

Lecture Tomorrow Night.

The appearance of Dr. H. W. Sears at the Academy of Music tomorrow evening for the benefit of the playgrounds' fund promises to be in every way a most delightful affair. Dr. Sears is one of America's most celebrated humorists and will be heard here in "More Taffy and Less Epitaphy." As announced Sunday the officers and members of the executive committee of the Playgrounds' Association will occupy seats on the platform and the ladies of the auxiliary will be patronesses of the evening. The ladies' committee is as follows: Mrs. Allan Nichols, president; Miss Hettie James, first vice president; Mrs. Wm. L. Parsley, second vice president; Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, Mrs. H. L. Vollers, Mrs. J. H. Watters, Miss Martha Williams, Mrs. Martin S. Willard, Mrs. Jessie K. Wise, Mrs. Henry C. Bear, Mrs. Jno. D. Bellamy, Mrs. L. Bluethenthal, Mrs. C. O. Byerly, Miss Corbett, Miss Gibson, Mrs. J. Victor Grainger, Mrs. W. N. Harriss, Mrs. Alexander D. McClure, Mrs. T. A. Smoot, Mrs. W. A. Snyder, Mrs. James Sprunt.

The stage will be attractively decorated by Mr. Will Rehder, the florist, and the Hollowbush Academy Orchestra has kindly donated its services for the evening. Mrs. Samuel J. Springer will contribute a solo to the musical features of the evening, Mr. Alf H. Yopp being the accompanist. The advance sale of seats opens this morning at Plummers, reserved seats being 75 cents; general admission 50 cents.

Big Bill at the Palace.

The Crystal Palace bill this week is extra big and includes a number of good things. Especially novel are the topliners, the Tora Japs, who yesterday introduced a decidedly unique act, a number of startling Oriental feats in magic. The feminine member of the troupe did some skilled foot-balancing and at one stage of the exhibition walked with naked feet upon sharp swords.

Billy Rogers, the well known blackface comedian, is also on the bill and, of course, is a big favorite. Still another very popular artist is Miss Lillian De Lesque who is a song-bird of fine type. Her act is both attractive and high class. Others on the bill this week are Miss Charlotte Fish, soubrette, and Jimmie Wrenn, singing and dancing comedian. Although the bill is extra large this week and more expensive than usual the same low prices are prevailing and performances are given both afternoons and nights.

A LEGISLATIVE PROBLEM

One More Representative Elected in State Than Constitution Allows.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 9.—An interesting legislative situation looms up about the solution of which a difference of opinion arises. The State Constitution limits membership in the House of Representatives to 120 members whereas 121 are elected this year, one from the new county of Lee where D. A. McDowell, a Democrat was chosen. The constitution says every county shall be represented. High Democratic authorities say the solution of the situation is to seat only one of the two representatives from Sampson county, Jas. T. Kennedy, F. H. Crumpler, both Republicans. The reason to cut Sampson is that the county under the former apportionment had the least excess of citizenship over the number to entitle the county to the additional member. The Republicans insist Sampson's delegation cannot be molested and Lee county had no right to elect a separate representative until another census apportionment of representation since no special provision was made by the Legislature in creating Lee county.

Cape Fear Division, O. R. C. Elects.

The annual meeting of Cape Fear Division, Order of Railway Conductors, was held in this city Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the officers elected being as follows: Chief Conductor W. H. Pemberton; Assistant Chief Conductor, L. L. Corbett; Secretary and Treasurer, W. E. Merritt; Senior Conductor, L. Clifton; Junior Conductor, D. H. McGlaughon; Inside Guard, Haywood Clark; Outside Guard, G. L. Fennell; Trustees, W. L. Harlow, W. L. Jones and C. E. McCulloch. The division now has more than 50 members and its affairs are in excellent condition.

Locate Amusement Park.

Mr. Louis W. Buckley, who has been here the past several weeks directing the affairs of the Elksfest, has been struck with the opportunity here for the development of an amusement park, similar to Dixieland at Jacksonville, Fla., and elsewhere. He has looked over a number of sites on the line of the Tidewater Power Co., and will decide on a location later. He leaves in a few days for New York to decided just what he will do in regard to the matter.

YESTERDAY'S STOCK MARKET.

Whirlwind Start—A Subsequent Drop in Prices—Tobacco Trust.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 9.—Starting with a whirlwind of tremendous trading at prices which threatened sharp declines before the day was over, the stock market, with sales of 1,633,000 shares today, broke all records for activity since last March but closed the day without recording serious net losses and even with gains in some important stocks. A sensational decline in the price of common stock of the American Tobacco Company on the curb market as a result of the decision of the United States Circuit Court declaring that company was a combination in violation of the Sherman law, precipitated the early demoralization in the trading on the stock exchange. Tobacco common had dropped 15 points just before the close of the market on Saturday and opened today at 375, from which point it dropped violently a total of 35 points. This, together with considerable apprehension among the traders as to the scope of the court's decision as applied to other combinations, had a sympathetic effect upon standard stocks on the exchange and prices suffered several sharp declines in the opening hour. A feeling that the recent advances in prices had been too enthusiastic and that a reaction was about due, heavy sales of American stocks in London and a rise in call money to 3 per cent, which had not been approached since last January, contributed to a disposition on the part of recent heavy buyers of stocks for speculation to dispose of their holdings and take profits. The attitude of this element, however, was offset by buying which came from some of the leading commission houses, some of which reported a very decided increase of public interest in the market.

In spite of the heavy undertone and heavy realizing of the last hour, many stocks closed at net gains, though Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Copper, Smelting, St. Paul, Baltimore and Ohio, Northern Pacific and the United States Steel shares closed at losses ranging from substantial fractions to over a point. American Tobacco common's net loss for the day was 10 points.

Steel common led the list in regard to activity, with a total of 221,000 shares. Union Pacific was next with about 156,000, while Reading was a close third with 150,000 full shares.

Bonds were very active, though the total of $6,532,000, was considerably below that of last Friday.

FLORIDA CANAL SCHEME

Plan for an Ocean to Gulf Canal Across the State—The Distance Saved in Course of Vessels—Immense Tonnage.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 9.—The project of cutting the Peninsula of Florida in two by an east and west ship canal connecting the Atlantic Ocean and the Gulf of Mexico, was the leading question today before the convention of the Gulf Coast Inland Waterways Association in session here. Senator-elect D. P. Fletcher, of Florida, tonight outlined this plan to the convention in a speech in which he said:

"We must meet waterway improvements in foreign countries by waterway improvements at home if we would maintain supremacy of even standing in the markets abroad. The problem of the cheapest and safest means of transportation now required by the Southern, Western and Northern growers is solved when the United States Gulf ports are opened and the Florida ship canal on the lock system is constructed.

"A ship canal across the Peninsula of Florida would shorten by about 500 miles the route from the Atlantic Ocean into the Gulf of Mexico, especially to the gulf ports of the United States, and avoid the dangerous navigation of the Gulf stream through the Straits of Florida. By this canal the commerce of this northern continent would be placed more than 1,000 miles nearer to the Central American Republics."

The general opinion seems to be that a tide-water canal is impracticable. For the lock canal almost a straight line across the narrowest part of the Peninsula could be selected, passing through a number of large lakes and using some portions of rivers. This canal would be a part of the contemplated inland water circuit of the whole of the central and eastern parts of the United States east of the Rocky Mountains.

It is estimated that the canal can be dug for $50,000,000. It has been estimated also that more than 30,000,000 tons would pass through the canal yearly which does not include the enormous traffic from Mexico, Nicaragua, Costa Rica or certain other countries, whose traffic would bring the tonnage, under a reasonable estimate to a total of 60,000,000 tons annually.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Wilmington the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

L. H. Partin, 7 So. Fourth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy for the kidneys as I used them with satisfactory results. My back was very weak and lame and I was bothered by pains across my loins. The kidney secretions were highly colored contained a sediment and were very painful in passage. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I concluded to give them a trial and bought a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store. They acted just as represented and it was not long before I was relieved."

A Shock Beyond Measure.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 9.—A special dispatch to the Times from Columbia, Tenn., the boyhood home of ex-Senator Carmack, says that the people of that city were shocked beyond measure at the news of the killing of Mr. Carmack in Nashville. Business has been suspended and will not be resumed until after the funeral.

Mrs. Carmack Almost Prostrated.

Columbia, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Mrs. E. W. Carmack left here for Nashville late today and she appeared on the verge of prostration. Her mother, Mrs. Ellen Dunnington, who has been seriously ill, was overcome and fears are entertained for her recovery. The remains of Mr. Carmack will reach here at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and the funeal probably will be arranged for Wednesday. It is thought that Bishop E. E. Hoss of the Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate at the funeral.

COTTON GROWERS AT MEMPHIS.

Will Discuss Advance in Price of Staple in the South.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Tomorrow the mass meeting of cotton growers, manufacturers and merchants, will be called to order by Harvie Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton Association, to discuss ways and means by which the price of the South's great staple can be advanced. Mr. Jordan said he expected a large gathering and said the work of the meeting will be productive of much good to the cotton farmer. The night rider question will be taken up and discussed and it is believed the convention will pass a resolution condemning this outlawry in the strongest terms.

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CURED

Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved by External Use of Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

Infantile eczema, which has baffled the skil of the best physicians for so many years at last seems to be curable—and curable with great ease.

Results of the last two years indicate conclusively that baby's itch, infantile eczema and other skin diseases of children can be very simply cured by the application of a compound composed of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription.

The Rev. Lewis Steeley, of Weatherly, Pa., writes:

"Our baby boy's little face was so dreadfully covered with eczema that blood and water ran from the sores nearly all the time. After using 3 1-2 bottles of D. D. D. Prescription we are so happy to tell you he is entirely cured and the disease has never broken out again. If this letter is in any way a help to other sufferers, you may publish it."

If you have a child which is suffering with this terrible itch, we are sure you will not neglect one hour to give your baby the right kind of relief. We have seen too often how quickly the remedy mentioned above takes the itch away at once and how all the cures seem to be permanent; we have seen this too often to hesitate at all in recommending the remedy for your children. Robert R. Bellamy, druggist.

A WOMAN'S TACT.

And the Way She Explained Her Diplomacy to Her Husband.

It being a holiday, the blundering man made calls with his wife. The first place they went the hostess said "Julia is engaged."

"Is she, indeed?" said the man's wife radiantly. "Which one did she finally accept?"

The next place they were informed that Margaret was engaged, and again the man's wife beamed sympathetically and murmured: "Is she, indeed? Which one did she accept?" At the third place it was the news of Jessie's engagement that was broken to them. As before, the man's wife put the question, "Which one did she finally take?"

On their way home the man said:

"Why did you ask 'which one' every time a new engagement was sprung on us? Are those girls so attractive that men were falling over each other in the scramble to get them for their wives?"

"Not at all," said his wife. "I don't snppose either of them ever had but one offer, and it is a wonder she got that. I shouldn't be surprised if the men back out even now before the wedding day. But you see, dear, I had to be diplomatic. Those people can do me many favors. The surest way to make myself solid with them is to pretend to think their girls so popular that every man in town was crazy to marry them."

"With my opportunities downtown," groaned the man, "if I had your genius we'd be millionaires inside of six months."—New York Sun.

FOES OF THE LEVEES.

Sources of Danger to the Artificial Banks Along the Mississippi.

"People who know little about our system of levees, the artificial banks built to confine the flood waters that pour into the Mississippi, no doubt imagine that the heavy rains are the only enemy with which the levees have to contend," said a Baton Rouge man.

"On the contrary, the levees, both during times of flood and low water, are subject to the incessant attacks of living foes, the destructive work of which costs millions of dollars. These foes are alligators, turtles, muskrats, field rats, fresh water terrapin and crawfish. Of all these burrowers that prey on the levees, excavating within them goodly chambers or tunnels, the crawfish do the most damage, with the turtles and terrapins a good second. The harm done by the alligators is comparatively small.

"In repairing the banks crawfish holes are often found of immense size. It is these hollow spaces that in time of freshets cause a caving in and break of the levees, which of course bring on an inundation of all the adjacent country. The worst part of the business is that no way of exterminating these pests has yet been found, and the only thing to be done is to try to keep them away from the banks as much as possible."

TELL WHAT IT CAN ACCOMPLISH

Information is Given in Answer to an Oft Repeated Question.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

People Ask Questions by Letter and in Person Which Are Answered in Lecture Delivered Last Night.

The campaign for better health, now being conducted in Wilmington by Col. Frank A. Dillingham, has been of inestimable value to the people of this section and has brought happiness into hundreds of Wilmington homes that had been saddened by suffering and affliction. Another source of great public good has been the course of free lectures delivered by Col. Dillingaam's assistant, Mr. Alva A. Mills, through which means the people are taught to care for their health and the proper manner to fight disease when it makes its appearance.

There have been a large number of letters sent to Col. Dillingham in which the writers ask if Plant Juice will cure diseases of women, and as Mr. Mills has also been frequently asked to answer this question, a portion of his lecture last night was devoted to this subject. Mr. Mills said in part:

"Dillingham's Plant Juice is especially adapted to the treatment of diseases peculiar to women. It quickly banishes the pain and aches of the back, the awful headaches, the dragging sensation and the extreme nervousness caused by woman's ills. It acts directly on the muscles, strengthening the ligaments, quickly creates a healthy circulation of the blood, and has an almost magical effect over all inflammation of the mucous surfaces. It should be taken for at least thirty days. If disturbances are allowed to continue, it is only a question of time when they will be productive of other and more serious troubles.

"Many serious operations could be avoided if Dillingham's Plant Juice were only taken in time. It is estimated that nine women out of every ten, over twenty-five years of age, have some trouble that is peculiar to them, and over 50 per cent. of those under 25 years af age are similarly affected. This is an appalling state of affairs. It is largely due to mental worry, overwork and anxiety. If women would care for themselves properly, be careful in regard to catching cold, and take a course of treatment of Dillingham's Plant Juice two or three times a year, very few would have trouble."

The rapid growth of the demand for Plant Juice outside of Wilmington is one of the remarkable features of the introduction of the remedies in this siction. Every mail coming into this city brings orders addressed to Col. Dillingham, or the local druggists, from persons who want to take advantage of the offer to prepay express charges on orders of three bottles, which are sold for $2.50 and the express charger prepaid.

Why is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. The marriage at Norfolk, Va., this evening of Miss Mildred Dryden Kensett, of that city to Edward Merrell Daniel, son of United States Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, will be the social event of the season in that State. Miss Kensett is said to be heiress to a large fortune.

Georgia's State Chemist Praises Cottolene.

Mr. J. H. McCandless, State Chemist of Georgia, before a recent gathering gave emphatic testimony to the high quality of Cottolene. He said:

"The sale of this product, and the proclamation that it is made from cotton seed oil, have done more to bring cotton seed oil truthfully and favorably before the public than anything else in recent history."

Mr. McCandless then pointed out why a pure refined vegetable oil base, such as is used in Cottolene, is the only assurance a woman has of a clean, digestible cooking product.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Tarboro Southerner: Rev. F. H. Harding, for five years rector of Calvary Episcopal church of Tarboro, has accepted the call to the Holy Communion, of Charleston, S. C. This decision was rendered to the vestry today, when Rev. Hardin tendered his resignation, to take effect November 30.

—Mount Olive Tribune: Mount Olive's handsome city hall, the largest and best in the State for the size of the town, has been completed. It is a three-story brick structure, the third story having been constructed as a home for the several fraternal organizations of the town, which they are now occupying. A movement is on foot to have a dedication ceremony by the several orders in the near future.

—Statesville Landmark: Odena, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weston, who live three miles north of town, was fatally burned about 12 o'clock yesterday and death resulted about four hours later. The little girl was in the house alone and her clothes caught from the open fireplace. She ran into the yard with her clothing ablaze. Her mother reached her as soon as possible and fought the flames with her hands, which were painfully burned.

—Charlotte Observer: "You can say for me," declared Mr. Thomas Settle, of Asheville, to an Observer man before leaving the city for home yesterday morning, "that if the members of the Legislature are not forced to make a stand on the question of local self-government it will not be the fault of the Republicans. They must stand to the rack, fodder or no fodder. We will draw a bill that will be submitted at the proper time and in the proper way."

— Newbern Journal: There was a queer booze case in Elizabeth City. A fellow bought what he supposed was the pure quill, whiskey, but when he came to sample it, found it to be vinegar. He was so chagrined and mad that he told the chief of police of the imposition and thus opened a very unpleasant condition of affairs for himself as he was made liable for prosecution. His desire to see the man who sold the vinegar punished was not fulfilled for he escaped arrest.

—News and Observer: Dr. J. E. Brooks, superintendent of the State Sanitarium for the treatment of tuberculosis which has been established at Montrose, Cumberland county, announces that the institution is now prepared to receive patients. The act authorizing the establishment of the sanitarium, carrying an appropriation of $15,000 for the purchase of a site and the erection of one or more buildings, was passed by the general assembly of 1907.

—Dillon Herald: Work has already been started on the road from Gibson to McColl and a permanent citizen of Clio who was here the other day said that an agreement had already been reached between the citizens of Clio and the railroad people for the extension of the road on to Clio. The Dillon people are very much exercised over the coming of the new road and the result of the meeting between the promoters and the Chamber of Commerce this week will be awaited with interest.

—Tarboro Southerner: Dr. D. Wagner was awarded $12,000 damages against the Atlantic Coast Line late Friday night by a jury of 11 men who rendered a verdict after being out five hours. The case has become famous in local court annals as it attracted much attention last year and at this term of court brought forth powerful arguments for both plaintiff and railroad. When judgment is entered, it is understood the railroad will take an appeal to the Supreme Court. Mr. Wagner was awarded a similar amount at the 1907 November term of court.

—Charlotte Observer: An interesting fact shown by the official returns in this congressional district as compiled by the successful Democratic candidate, Mr. E. Yates Webb, is that his opponent, Mr. J. A. Smith, had a majority of 67 in the district outside of Mecklenburg. Mr. Webb's majority in Mecklenburg was 3,071, 67 more than his majority in the district, 3,004. The majorities of Mr. Webb were: Gaston, 952; Cleveland, 896; Lincoln, 143; Bruke, 50; Yancey, 108; this being a total majority of 5,220. Mr. Smith got majorities of 1,200 in Mitchell, 956 in Madison, and 6 in Catawba —in all 2,216.

—Greensboro, Nov. 7.—Ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, Republican State chairman, gives out a statement announcing that he will not stand for re-election to that office, a position he has held since 1906 and to which he was re-elected for two years at the meeting of the State convention in this city last April 1st. It is predicted that Judge Adams will be recognized by the Taft administration with a responsible and lucrative office, and if this should prove to be the case he might resign the chairmanship before the expiration of his term. Both Judge Taft and Chairman Hitchcock have expressed to Chairman Adams their gratification over the showing made by the Republicans of North Carolina under his leadership.

HOUSE WORK

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty.

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. A female weakness or displacement is often brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these faithful women that comes as a boon and a blessing, as it did to Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., and to Mrs. W. P. Boyd, of Beaver Falls, Pa., who say:

"I was not able to do my own work, owing to the female trouble from which I suffered. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully, and I am so well that I can do as big a day's work as I ever did. I wish every sick woman would try it.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

An Enviable Spirit

is that of the man watching another take a drink of our Liquor, and a "spirit to be envied" is that same Liquor. It is mild, delicate, delicious in flavor, yet has the right "smack" that afterwards gives the body a warm glow throughout. And it is the kind you will take pride in offering to a caller at the house —for he will appreciate it also. Try a sample and then hear our prices.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 9.—Today's cotton market was very active, with March and later months making new high records for the season. Later prices reacted partly, however, and the close was barely steady at the net advance of 6 to 11 points. Sales were estimated at 375,000 bales. The market opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of one point and for the first few minutes ruled rather irregular owing to lower cables and uncertainty as to the effect of the census report; but as the market failed to yield to bearish efforts, owing to aggressive support from the Wall street bulls, demand soon became general and during the afternoon March sold up to 8.99, or 27 points above the low level of last Friday and 3 points above the previous high record. At this time the general list showed a net advance of 12 to 17 points. Houses with New Orleans and Western connections were active buyers on the advance. While some spot people seemed to be selling near months, there was some scattered Southern selling of the late positions, and above 8.95 for the Spring months, trading became very heavy, causing the reaction toward the close. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 1-16 cents higher. While the census report showed more cotton ginned to November 1st than during any of the previous years for which records have been kept, the figures were under rather than over local expectations and seemed to have no influence on local estimates of the crop,, those believing in a moderate yield maintaining their position by arguments concerning improved ginning facilities, early maturity, abundant labor and favorable weather.

Recepts at the ports today were 73,072 bales against 57,883 last week and 61,923 last year; for the week 430,000 bales against 482,433 last week and 257,243 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 23,905 bales against 6,789 last year and at Houston 21,755 bales against 6,829 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 5 points advance. Middling uplands 9.35; middling gulf 9.60. Futures opened steady and closed fairly steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 9.—A large volume of orders for all classes of goods came into the dry goods market today. Jobbers are doing an active trade on seasonable goods and are getting better inquiries for next year's shipments. The carpet season opened during the day, prices being from 5 to 7 1-2 per cent. lower than last season for goods for immediate shipment. On goods ordered after January 1st this past season's prices will prevail. Raw silk is slightly easier. Cotton goods and yarns are strong and active.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 9.—The irregular movement of prices today betrayed the throes of the process of digestion to which the market was subjected by reason of the large sales of stocks by the recent heavy buyers, as well as by the holders of longer standing. Although the market staggered under this treatment it showed strong absorptive capacity and power of resistance. This action served to keep up speculative confidence and to encourage the renewed operations on the long side which became conspicuous after the reaction of the first hour. Even so moderate a reaction as that of the early part of today revealed the existence of a large number of selling orders placed at limits below the prices of Saturday with the purpose of saving profits or stopping losses in case of a break in prices. It was feared for a time that the incident which would topple over the speculative fabric had been met in the decision of Saturday of the Government's suit against the American Tobacco Company in favor of the Government's contention of the violation by this company of the anti-trust law. The language of the decision seemed to some of those in the financial district to open such a vulnerable position for practically all the great corporate combinations of the modern industrial structure that a wholesale readjustment would be necessary. The assurances of the President-elect of exemption from pursuit for those corporations which are within the law and using legal methods did not seem to cover the wide reaching for the existing statute. The violent break in the American Tobacco securities themselves as well as a part of the pressure on the market was ascribed to this influence. While it was partly offset by the vigorous upbidding of a few stocks, the disposition to realize speculative profits continued in evidence.

A significant development of the day was the decided tightening of the time money market, which was reported much more active and with tenders growingly inclined to hold off for higher rates. The considerations bearing on the technical speculative position dominated the market to the exclusion of facts bearing on actual values. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, were $6,532,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 1,633,100 shares.

—Asheville, N. C., Nov. 7.—Silas G. Bernard was today appointed receiver for the Buck Shoals Company, located in Anderson county. The receivership is made pending the outcome of litigation between Mrs. Sophia Harrison-Eastman and Captain V. E. McBee for possession of the Buck Shoals property, which Mrs. Eastman alleges was bought with her money. It is also alleged that there may be criminal prosecutions before the matter ends. Mrs. Eastman, who is a daughter of the late Mayor Carter Harrison, Sr., of Chicago, and a sister of Carter Harrison, Jr., who followed his father to the mayoralty of the Windy City, is prominent in society and the ligation is most interesting, if not sensational, it is learned here. While it was desired that publicity be avoided, it is not denied by counsel for Mrs. Eastman that lawsuits are pending and that possession of the Buck Shoals property, once the home of the late famous Bill Nye, is involved.

SHOT POSTMASTER AND KILLED SELF

New York City's Postmaster Victim of Stenograper Who Commits Suicide.

FIRED FOUR TIMES AT HIM

Mr. Morgan's Life is Saved by Prompt Action of His Daughter—Has Favorable Chance For Recovery.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 9.—Edward M. Morgan, postmaster of New York City, who was wounded in the abdomen this morning by a bullet fired by E. H. B. Mackey, an eccentric English stenographer, who then committed suicide, was resting well tonight, and unless complications develop, he will recover.

Mr. Morgan probably owes his life to the quick wit and bravery of his 14-year-old daughter, Dorothy, who saw Mackay draw his revolver and struck it with her hand. This deflected the bullet, otherwise the postmaster would have been fatally wounded, for his assailant was at close range and fired four shots in all. The shooting occurred at 146th street and only a short distance from Mr. Morgan's home. He was on his way down town at the time.

An investigation of the life and record of Mackay reveals that he was of a morbid nature, and a former inmate of an asylum in Worcester, Mass. That his act was premeditated is made certain by a letter he left, but aside from a fancied grievance against Mr. Morgan and the postoffice authorities concerning the handling of his mail, nothing has come to light to indicate why he should have sought to murder the postmaster. His clothing when searched gave up between 30 and 40 smokeless cartridges, a heavy slung shot, a knife with a four-inch blade and a clasp knife.

A quantity of literature on socialism and a slung shot similar to the one found on the body were discovered in his room. That he was rational during work hours, however, was attested by the Broadway firm of lawyers by whom he was employed.

THE LEPER EARLY.

To be Allowed to Live in Same House With His Family.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 9.—It was decided by the district commissioners today to break up the strict isolation of John R. Early, the leper, and permit him to live with his family in a small brick house near the Washington workhouse grounds. He will be under the same roof with his family, but it will be arranged that they can live entirely apart.

"If this is done, the welfare of the public and of Early and his family will be duly safeguarded," declared Health Officer Woodward, "and Early can cease to be dependent on the District and can support himself and his wife and children from his pension money, which is $72 a month."

MUST PAY THE TAX.

Decision in Alabama Courts Against Foreign Railroad Corporations.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 9.—Judge A. D. Sayre, of the city court, today ruled that the new franchise tax on foreign corporations is valid and that those railroads which are resisting payment have no right to recover the tax they paid under protests. He also held that the absorption of certain Alabama roads in the past did not make a domestic corporation of the Atlantic Coast Line; that it is a foreign corporation and must pay the tax. The tax totals $150,000 annually on the several railroads.

Members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy began arriving in Atlanta last night for their annual convention which will begin in that city on Wednesday.

THE ARMY WAR COLLEGE

Formally Opened by Simple Ceremonies Yesterday—Secretary Root Delivered the Principal Address—Other Details.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 9.—The formal opening of the Army War College today was made the occasion of simple ceremonies in the building dedicated to that institution, Secretary Root under whose administration of the War Department the great institution for military instruction was inaugurated seven years ago, General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff, and General W. W. Witherspoon, persident of the College, addressed a distinguished company consisting of high officials of the Government, members of the diplomatic corps and officers of the Army, Navy and Marine Corpe concerning the history and purposes of the institution.

Secretary of War Wright and Assistant Secretary Oliver were present.

General Bell referred to the first 100 years of American development as being characterized by indifferennce to any external interests. The Spanish American war, he declared, taught the Nation the fatuity of such apathy. It developed a lack of preparation to promptly meet military contingencies, but he declared regardless of what the policy of the government may be in the future the army will never be caught without plans to to meet an emergency.

Secretary Root declared that it was not strange that at the capital of a country devoted to peace there should arise this structure devoted to the science of the arts of war. Selfishness, greed, jealousy and spite have not yet disappeared among men, and prosperity, he said, only invited attack unless there is also the virile manhood and capacity to defend the Nation possessing it.

In order that this Nation may be able to defend itself, if need be, he said, the Army War College had been created. Mr. Root decried the practice of scattering the entire force over the country in little bands, saying it prevented officers from acquiring efficiency in commanding large forces, the Spanish war demonstrating how few officers had ever seen any large body of troops assembled. There had been no one at the head of the Army charged with keeping pace with the advance of military science. "We are not a military nation and never shall be," said Mr. Root, "We are warlike enough to rise in defense of our rights. We are singularly like the English and singularly unlike most of the nations of the Continent. Our ideas are political and not military. We do not therefore naturally run in the mould of military organizations.

"Officers of the general staff," he insisted, "should not allow their desire for power in military affairs to cause them to be absorbed by administration rather than by a study of military problems. He admonished them to settle their military questions within the limits of the militiasm and not carry their controversies over to Congress or to the people. He advised them to accept loyally the situation when they see a younger officer jumped over their heads because of some superiority.

"As you are good, be good Americans," he said.

GOMPERS HEARTILY APPLAUDED

At Opening Session of American Federation of Labor Convention.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 9.—Hearty applause greeted President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor today as he appeared before the delegates to the 28th annual convention of the organization at its opening sessions. John Mitchell, formerly president of the United Workers of America, said:

"There may be a fight on the question of allowing the Federation to be brought into politics in the future but I do not think that Mr. Gompers will be censured for the part he played in supporting Mr. Bryan."

President Gompers' report was an accounting of the work performed by the President during the past year. He declared:

"There must not be permited to grow up or to be maintained a permanent army of unemployed."

The part of the report that touched on the Bucks Stove and Range company's injunction case was frequently interrupted by applause. The stand taken by John Mitchell, Frank Morrison and Samuel Gompers on the injunction case also were applauded. Mr. Gompers said in part:

"It is impossible to see how we can comply fully with the courts injunction. The suppression of freedom of the press is a most serious undertaking whether in autocratic Russia or the Republic of the United States.

"The President made an unwarranted attack upon me and upon the labor organizations of the country. Speaker Cannon has packed committees, not only against labor but against any other real reform legislation. Congress adjourned with the defiant declaration of one of the Republican leaders, James S. Sherman, that the Republican party is responsible for legislation or for the failure of legislation and that he and his party were willing to assume the responsibility.

"The American labor movement is not partisan to a political party, it is partisan to a principle, the principle of human rights. Our conventions have frequently declared that our movement has neither the right nor the desire to dictate how a member shall cast his vote."

Mr. Gother's defense of his action during the last political campaign was greeted with cheers.

EDITOR CARMACK SHOT TO DEATH

Tennessee Ex-Senator Killed in Street as Result of Political Grievance.

LAWYER COOPER; MURDERER

Formerly Prominent Member of United States Senate—Fatal Duel Caused by Editorials About Colonel Cooper.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Former United States Senator Edward Ward Carmack, editor of the Tennesseean, was shot and killed this afternoon in Seventh avenue, north, in front of the Polk flats, by Robin Cooper, a son of Colonel Duncan C. Cooper. Mr. Carmack was going north on Seventh avenue and Colonel Cooper and his son were approaching Seventh avenue in Union street. Soon after they came in sight of one another, the shooting began. Robin Cooper, it is said, fired two shots and Senator Carmack one. Colonel Duncan Cooper, it is said, drew a pistol, but did not shoot.

Senator Carmock fell to the ground with a trio of shots, dying instantly. Robin Cooper was shot in the right shoulder but was not seriously hurt.

It is said that the trouble is one of the results of the recent Gubernatorial primary in which Carmack was defeated. Carmack had since he became editor of the Tennesseean, been rather caustic in adversely criticising what he called the Democratic machine and had printed several editorials about Colonel Cooper.

Within the last few days, it is said, Colonel Cooper told Carmack that these editorial criticisms must cease. This morning another editorial reference to Colonel Cooper appeared in the Tennesseean and this is sppposed to have been the immediate cause of the trouble.

As soon as Senator Carmack fell on the edge of the street curbing, Colonel Cooper put his arm around Robin Cooper and both walked a few feet down Seventh avenue to Dr. R. G. Fort's office, where the slight wound in Robbin's shoulder was treated.

An ambulance carried the body of Mr. Carmack to an undertaking establishment. The pistol of Mr. Carmack was found lying at his side with two chambers empty and it was turned over to an officer.

Young Cooper was later carried to a hospital and Colonel Cooper is held at police headquarters. Robin Cooper is an attorney, 27 years old, and unmarried.

Dr. Glasgow's Story of Tragedy.

Dr. McPheeters Glasgow, who arrived at the scene soon after the tragedy occurred said tonight:

"I found the body of Mr. Carmack lying on the right side of Seventh avenue as one walks to Church street from Union street. He was lying with his head facing north and with his right arm under his head. His pistol was lying just out of the reach of his right hand and the weapon was pointing south. An evening paper was lying just out of his left hand, which held the stump of a cigar which was crushed. I immediately summoned an ambulance and had the body carried to the undertaking establishment of Finley M. Dorris. The body was without signs of life when found by me and appeared to have been so for about five minutes.

"There were three bullets in the body of Mr. Carmack. One entered on the left side about two and a half inches below the left nipple and just a short distance below the heart and remained a short distance from the right side, under the skin, crossing the median line of the anatomy.

"Another bullet entered the left shoulder and lodged about four and a half inches below the right nipple under the skin. Both of these wounds were clean ones and I do not think they the fatal ones.

"The third bullet, which I conceive to be the fatal one, was in the neck. The wound was one and one-half inches to the left of the median line and an inch below the hair line on the neck posteriorly. The bullet entered the neck and made an exit from the mouth of the deceased. The bullet was found on the street, under his tongue at the exit of the wound. Two front teeth were also broken loose. I think this was the fatal wound.

"I think there were two bullets from Carmack's gun.."

Mrs. Eastman Was Nearby.

The body of Mr. Carmack was prepared for burial and removed to the home of Frank Lander, general manager of the Tennesseean, and will be taken to Columbia, his former home tomorrow. The cobatants were evidently very close together when the firing began, but the question of who fired the first shot is in controversy. Mrs. Charles H. Eastman, of this city, and J. M. Eastman, of New York, were nearby when the tragedy occurred. Mr. Eastman's hearing is not good and he declared he knew but little of the affair. Mrs. Eastman said:

"We ware walking down Seventh avenue in the direction of Church street and had just passed the entrance to the Polk flats. Mr. Carmack came up the street towards us, smiling as he recognized me. He was some steps away and there were a very very few people on the streets. Mr. Eastman and I were near the edge of the sidewalk and Mr. Carmack would have passed between us and the fence. He raised his hat as he spoke. He had his right hand up and was about to make a remark when somebody said—It was the older voice—'We've got you all right,' or something to that effect.

"I can't say positive what the exact words were. It never occurred to me that it was anything but a friend speaking. Mr. Carmack raised his eyes, instantly put on his hat and ran his hand back, when the same voice said: 'You coward, you are hiding behind a woman are you?' Senator Carmack jumped out so as to get clear of me and I jumped into a gateway. I saw that Mr. Carmack had a pistol. I turned and said: 'For God's sake don't shoot.' I saw Mr. Carmack wheel and fall in a heap in the gutter."

Mrs. Eastman said she saw the young man standing over Mr. Carmack and that he put something into his own pocket.

Senator Carmack's Career.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Former United States Senator Edward W. Carmack was born near Castillan Springs, Summer county, Tennessee, November 5, 1858. He had an academic eduaction, studied law, practiced cratic convention in 1896 and a member of the legislature of 1884 He was a delegate to the National Democratic convention in 18896 and a member of Congress in 1897-1901 from the Tenth Congressional district of Tennessee. He served with distinction in the United States Senate for six years being defeated for the election in the primary a little over a year ago by former Governor Robert Taylor. Senator Carmack then resumed the practice of law in Memphis, which was then his home, but within a few months removed to Nashville.

Last Spring he opposed Governor Patterson for the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination, championing the cause of State wide prohibition. Carmack was defeated. Shortly after his defeat, Mr. Carmack accepted the editorship of the Nashville Tennesseean and for the last two months has been at the head of that paper .

Senator Carmack's newspaper career began in 1886 as a member of the editorial staff of the Nashville American. He founded the Nashville Democrat in 1889 and when it was merged into the American he became editor-in-chief of the American. In 1892 he became editor of the Commercial Appeal at Memphis.

He was married in April 1890, to Miss Elizabeth Cobey Dunnington, of Columbia, Tenn.

Well Known in Washington.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Senator Carmack, is well remembered in Washington, where he served in both Houses of Congress. During his Senatorial career from 1901 to 1907 he made a number of brilliant speeches. Although inclined to be sarcastic in some of his utterances he had many friends in Congress among both Democrats and Republicans who admired his fearlessness and his intellectual attainments. Perhaps the most notable speech during his four years in the lower House was his brilliant effort in his own defense when Josiah Patterson, father of the present governor of Tennessee, contested Carmack's seat. During his Congressional career he constantly attacked the Republican administration, in connection, among others, with the Indinaola, Brownsville and Panama revolution incidents, executive encroachment, etc., and his speeches on the subject of the Philippine tariff and in answer to Senator Foraker on the negro "shooting up" incident at Brownsville, are among those particularly recalled by Tennesseean admirers. In the Senate he was a minority member of the Committee on the Philippines.

Carmack Advised.

Laps G. McCord, Jr., city editor of the Tennesseean is quoted as saying that "Several friends of the Senator had advised him to be careful and to all these admonitions the Senator replied that he did not intend to show
